Principal's Message

Acalanes has experienced another successful year both in scholarship and the activities which this yearbook records. Noticeable, too, has been the fine attitude of mutual respect and cooperation between students and faculty.

Since its establishment eight years ago, our school has grown rapidly in enrollment. For seven years no additions have been made in buildings. Between now and next fall we will grow both in enrollment and facilities.

It is my earnest wish that as we approach large school size we can maintain the friendly atmosphere and informal relationships which always have characterized Acalanes.

Dedication

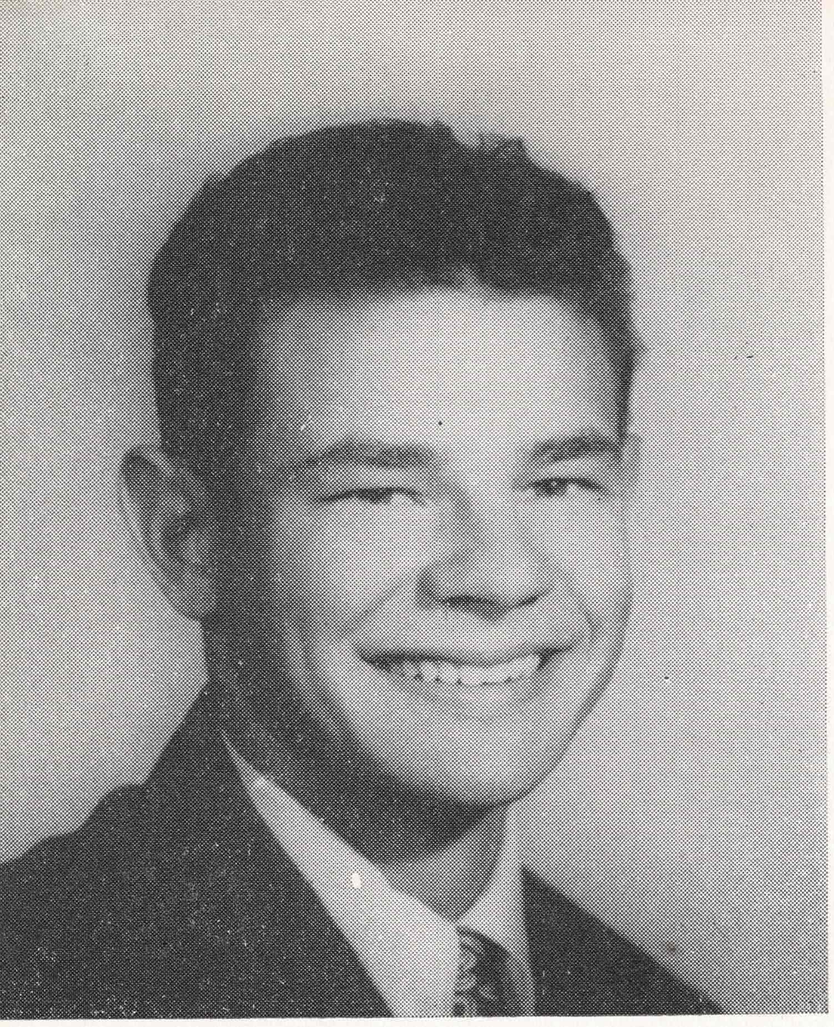

It is with deep affection that we dedicate the 1948 AKLAN to one who has given generously of her time and energy for the enjoyment of the Acalanes student body and the community.

During her six years at Acalanes, many students have been influenced by the understanding and personal interest given them through English and Dance. That she is able to transmit her creative ability to her students is shown by their achievements in composition and dance.

In dance she is almost indistinguishable from her students. While conveying to her pupils the art and feeling which must be had to dance creatively, she actually becomes one of the group, a life-time friend.

We, therefore, dedicate the AKLAN of 1948 to Millicent Hamburger.

Dance

The Dance Group achieved a very prominent position in the year's activities at Acalanes by presenting two major programs. For the school's traditional gift to the community, the Dance Group, under the direction of Millicent Hamburger, created and produced its own version of "Hansel and Gretel" as a dance pantomime.

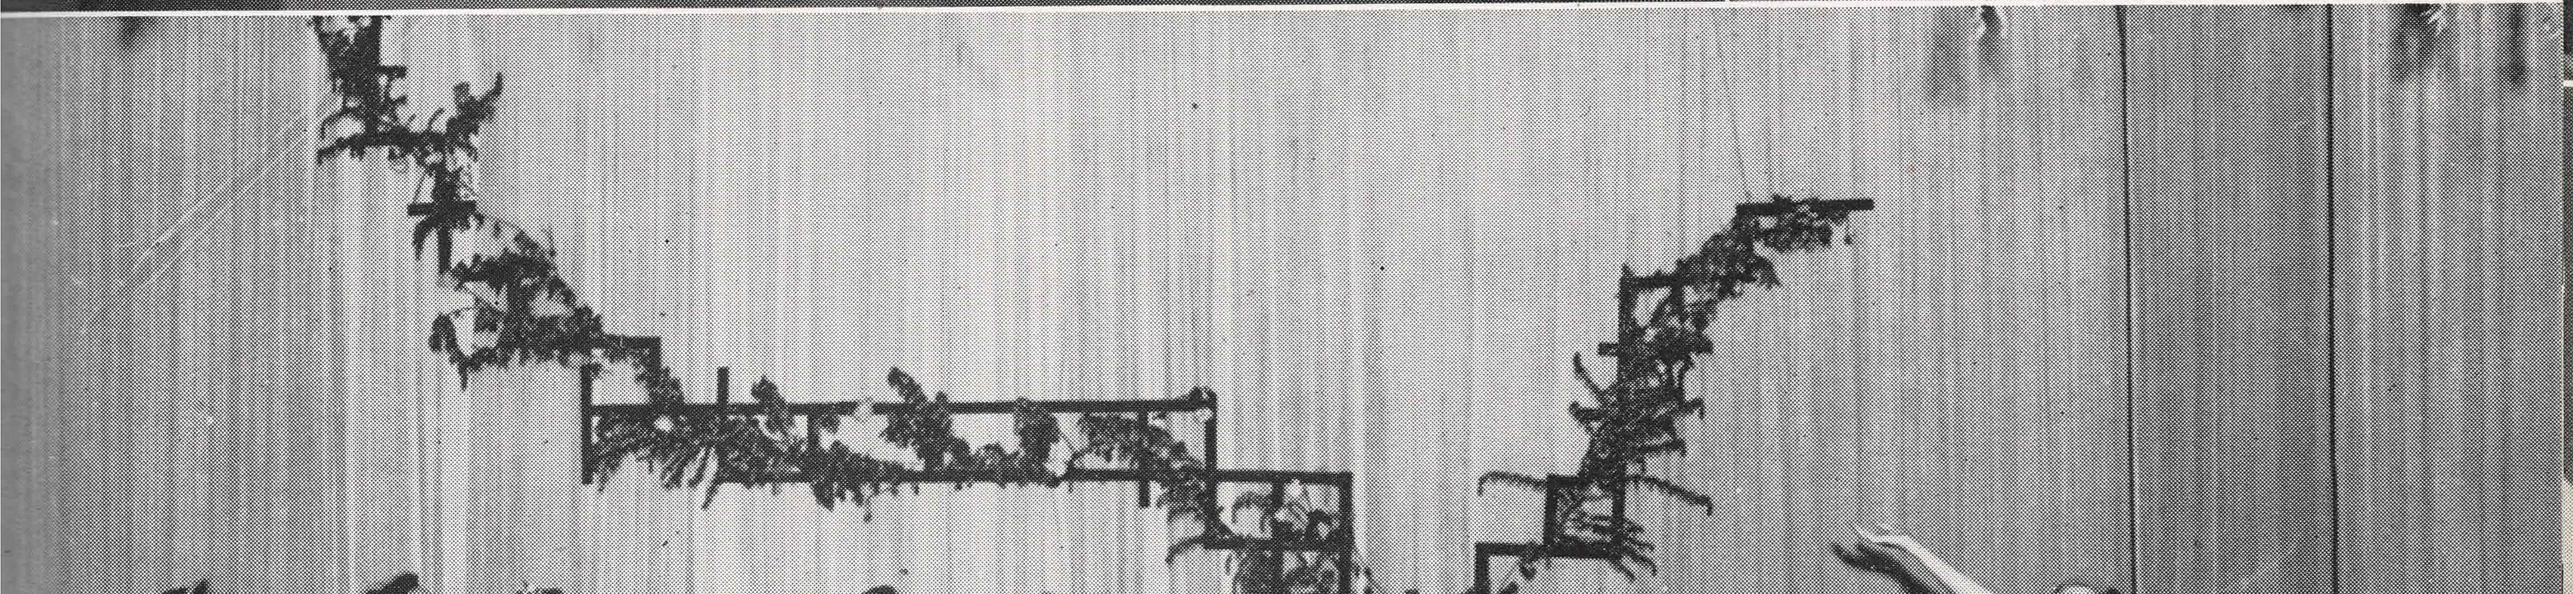

Directed by Millicent Hamburger, the spring activities of the Dance Group were many. They included performances for the Open House, Mothers' Tea, and the Music and Dance Festival.

The Dance Group presented Prokofieff's Scherzo and March from the "Love of Three Oranges," the Brahms' "Liebeslieder Waltzes," a group of Negro spirituals—"Honor! Honor!", "Trampin'," and "Dry Bones." The Dance Class portrayed a group of songs from the South African Veld—"Train to Kimberley," "Jan Pieriewiet," and "Zulu Warrior."

Drama

"THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER"

The third quarter of drama activities under the direction of Sheila Pedersen was an important one for the seniors, for it was devoted chiefly to the year's biggest production, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," by Kaufman and Hart. Barry Lar Rieu as Sheridan Whiteside, together with a cast of twenty fine seniors turned out a superb performance. Marie Inman-Kane, Ruth Palmer, Lindsay Smith, Pat Johnson, Ken Wagner, Marilyn Superak, Jeanne Grimes, and Bob Carlisle, Mike McKee and Pat Frietas interpreted some of the major parts. The properties under the direction of Lorrie Guerra and Mardi Slaven, were some of the oddest ever seen on the Acalanes stage.

"THREE ON A THURSDAY"

The Drama Club presented three types of one-act comedies. "Low Bridge" with Nancy Macomber, Marie Buskirk, Janice Comstock, and Carolyn Klitgaard was a satire on bridge playing. "The Boor," starring Neeltje Eggen, Claude Bolender, and Tom Hageman, was a Russian Folk play. "The Man in the Bowler Hat," a nonsensical farce, included in its cast John Klauder, Mavis Bahls, Dorothy Bedard, Boyd Wickman, Pat Frietas and Bill Joslin.

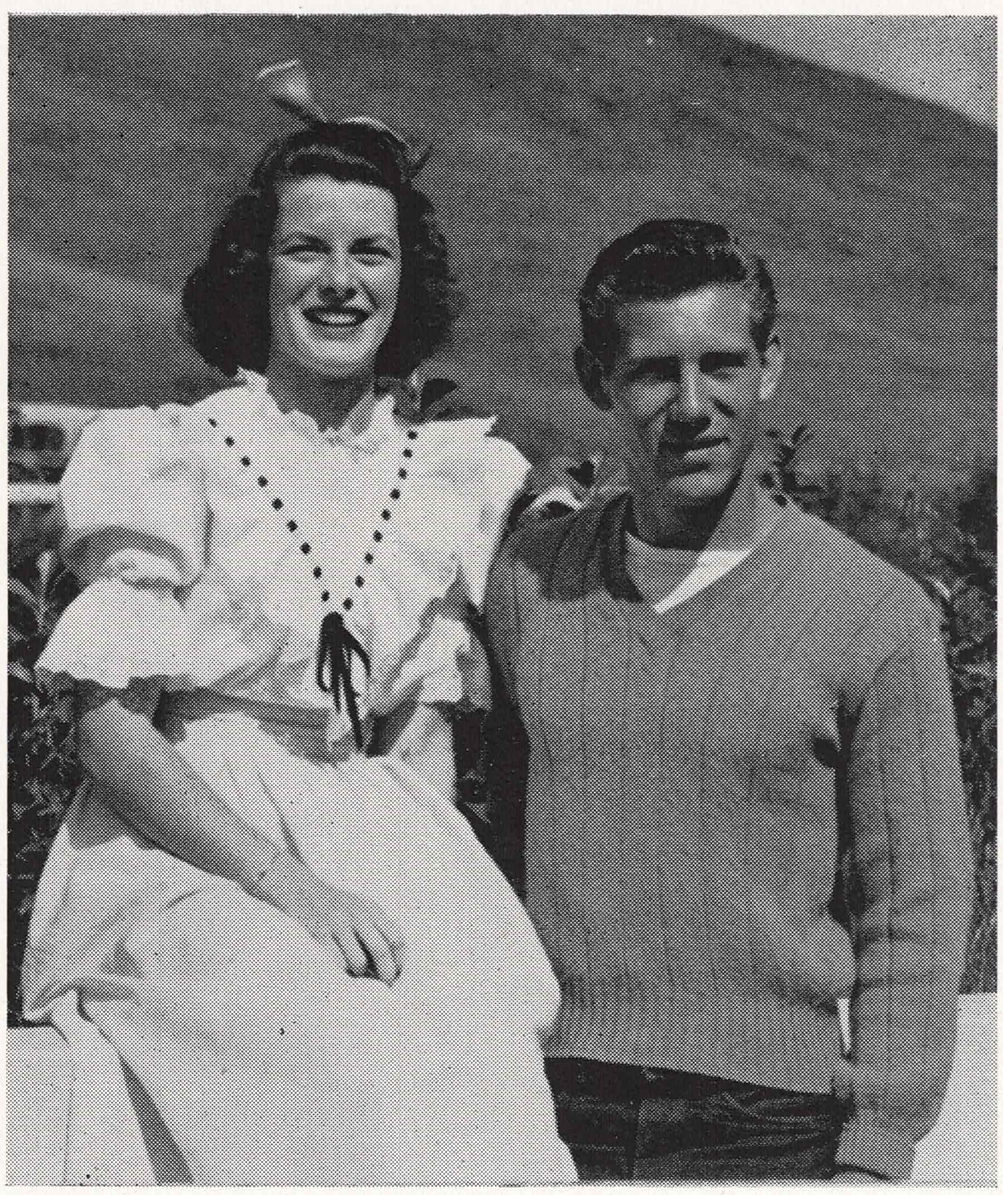

"THE TANTRUM"

The first quarter activity Drama Club presented a one-act play "The Tantrum" before an all-adult audience. The play was a light comedy, including in its cast newcomers as well as veterans to the Acalanes stage. The leading parts were taken by Tom Hageman, Mavis Bahls, Dorothy Bedard, Judy Dunlap, Lonnie Thomas, Buford Feagans and Meade Anne Milisitch.

"A" Swimming

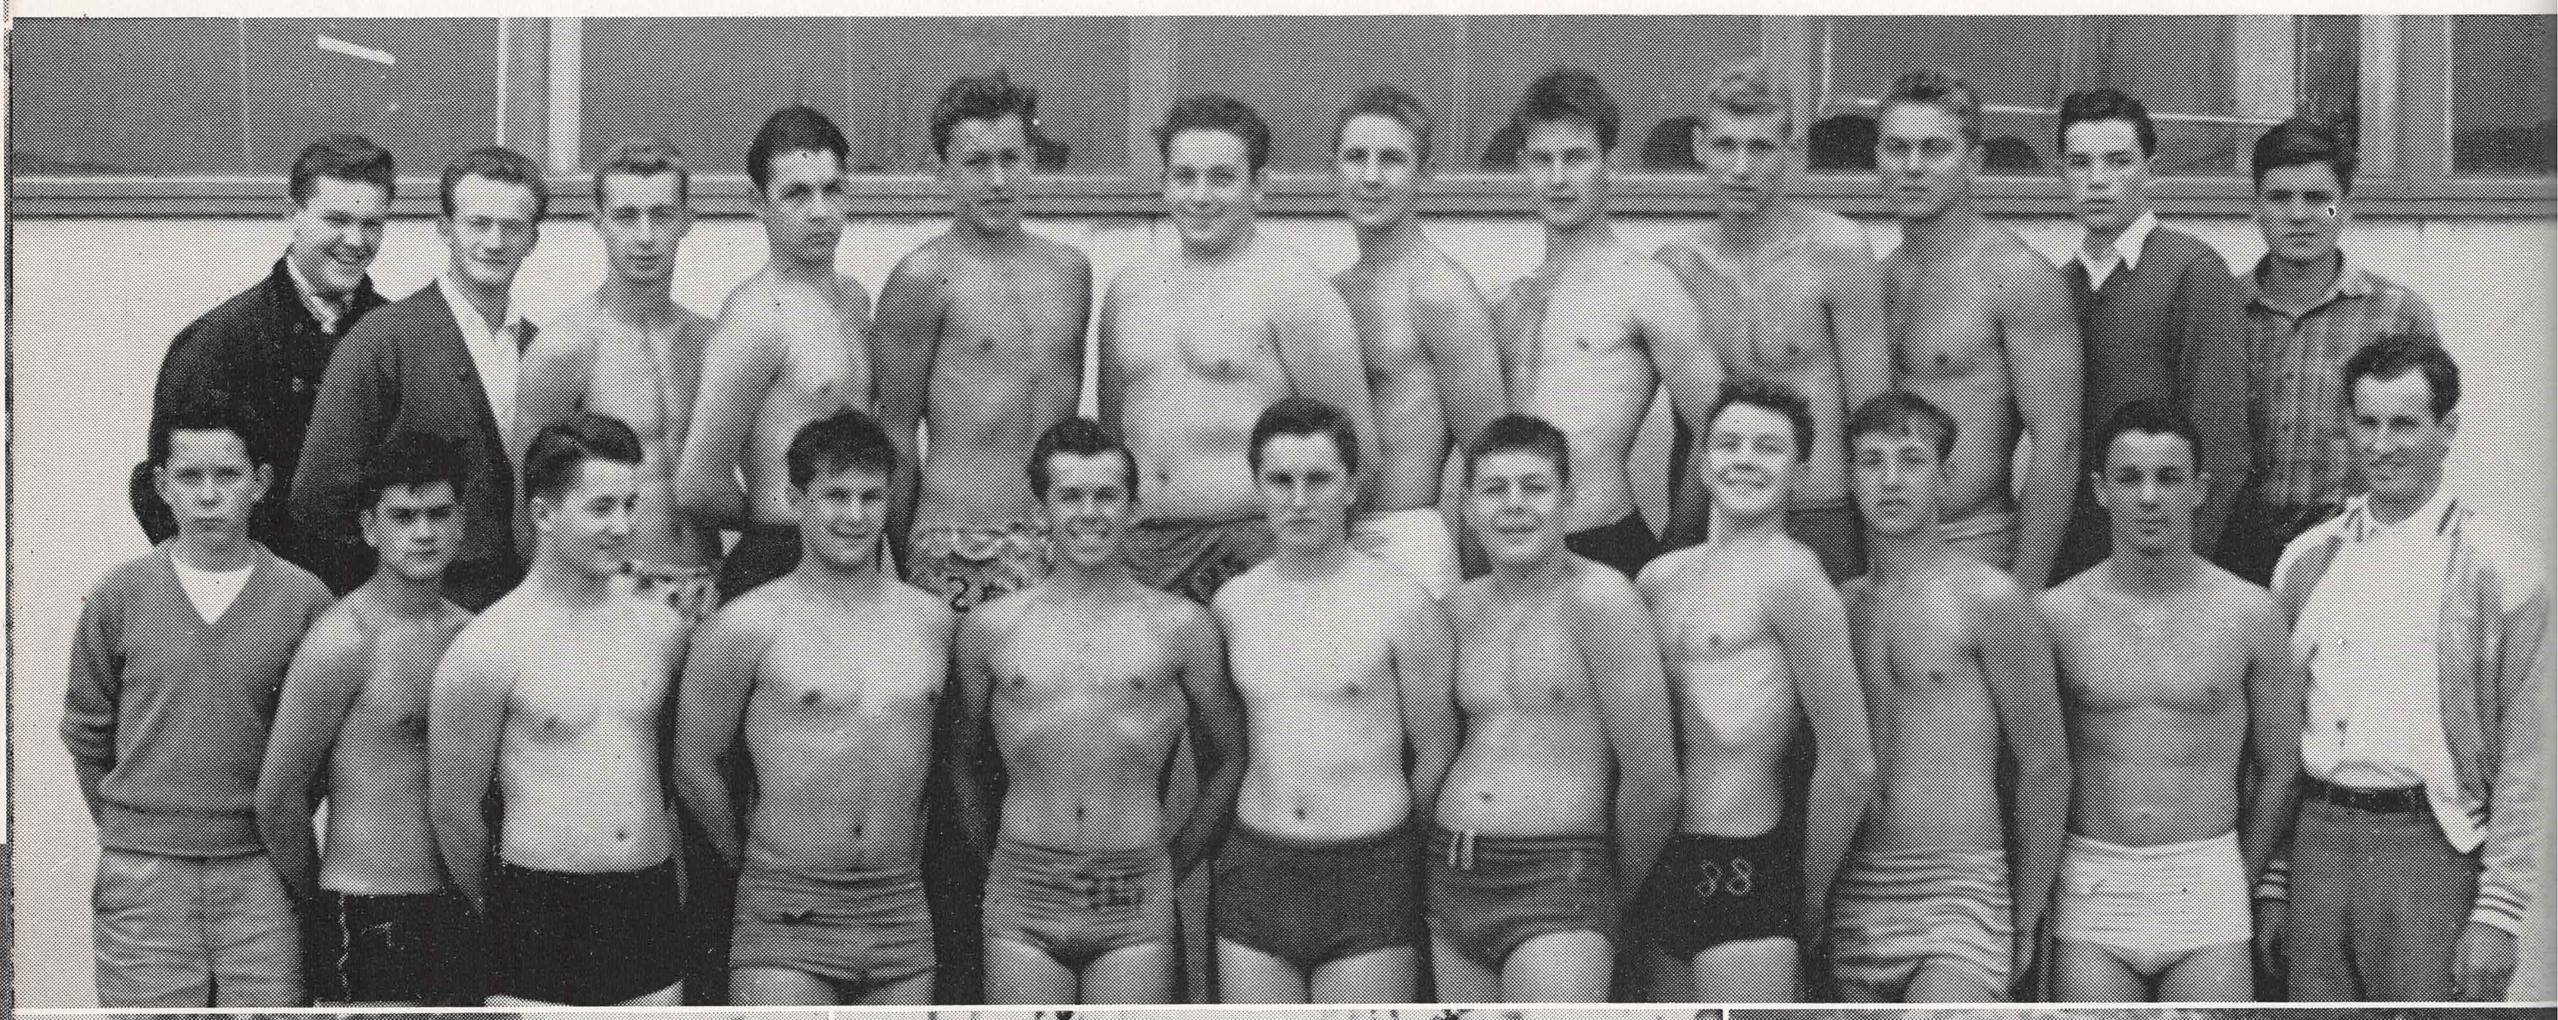

After an injury-ridden early season the Don Varsity Swimming Team proved itself to be one of the strongest teams in Acalanes History.

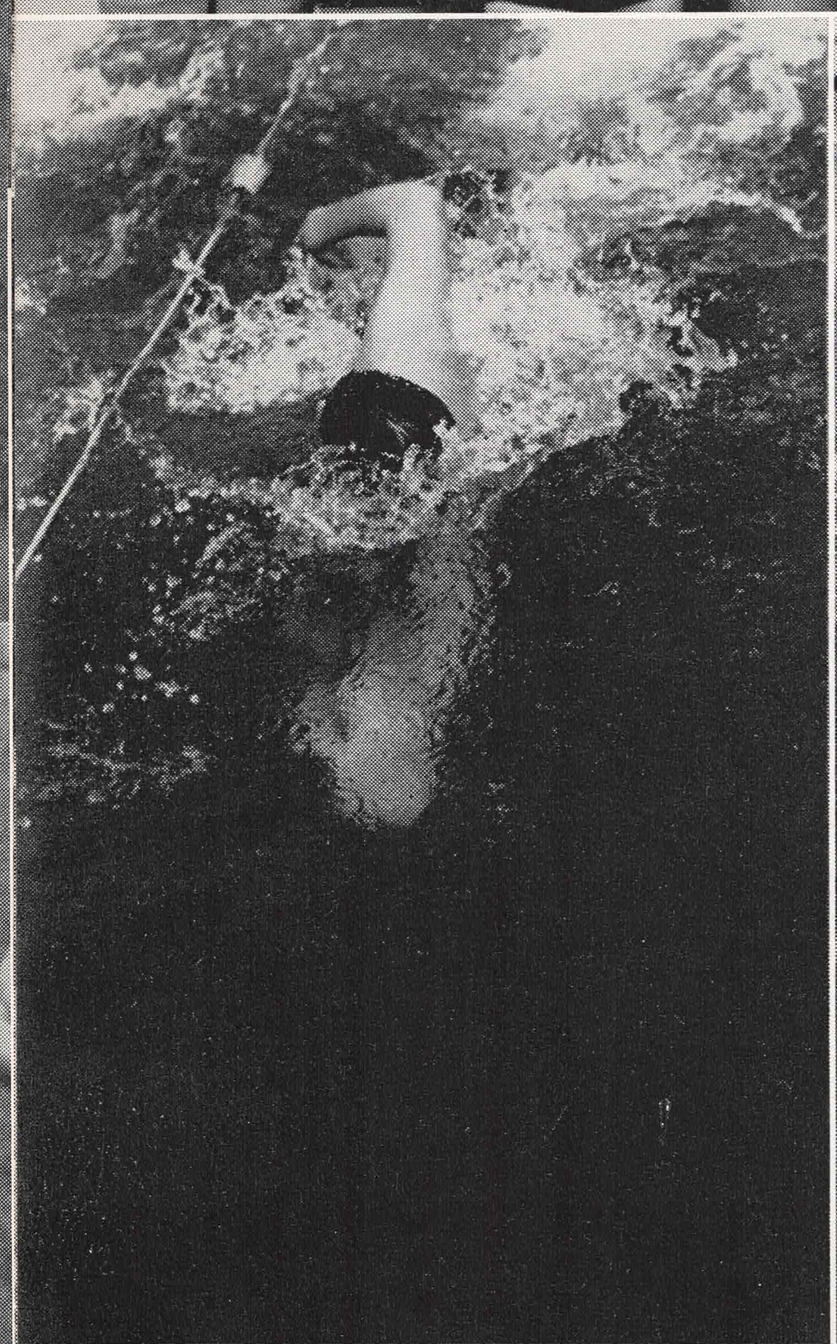

Sparked by such outstanding swimmers as Jim Selby and Marshall Freeman, the Dons coasted into an easy county championship, their fourth in four years.

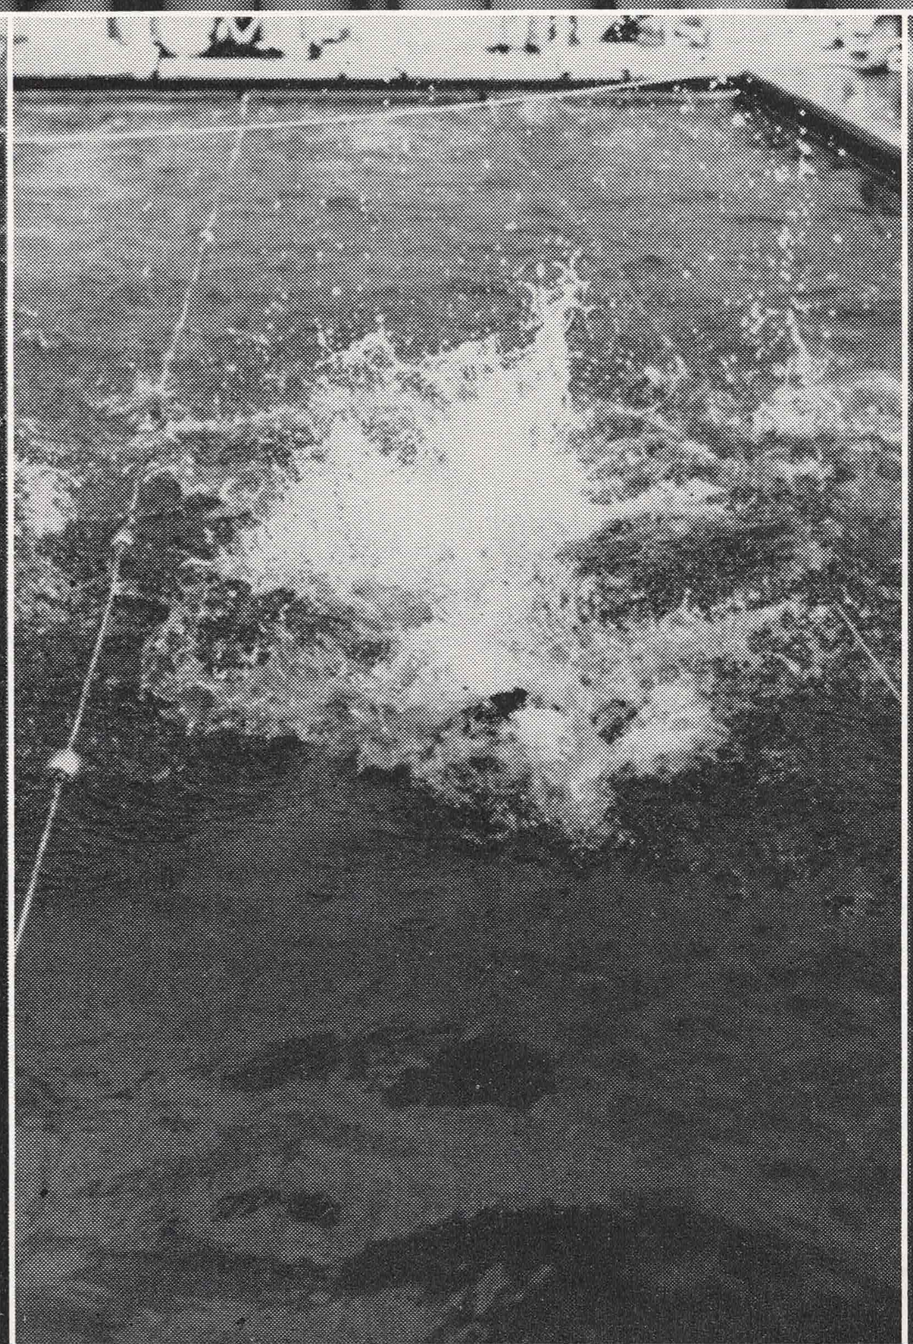

The graduation of Chapman, Gentry, Selby, Leigh Freeman, Drinkward, Dunasky, Bennett, and East will be sorely felt for these boys have been the mainstay of this year's team.

"B" Swimming

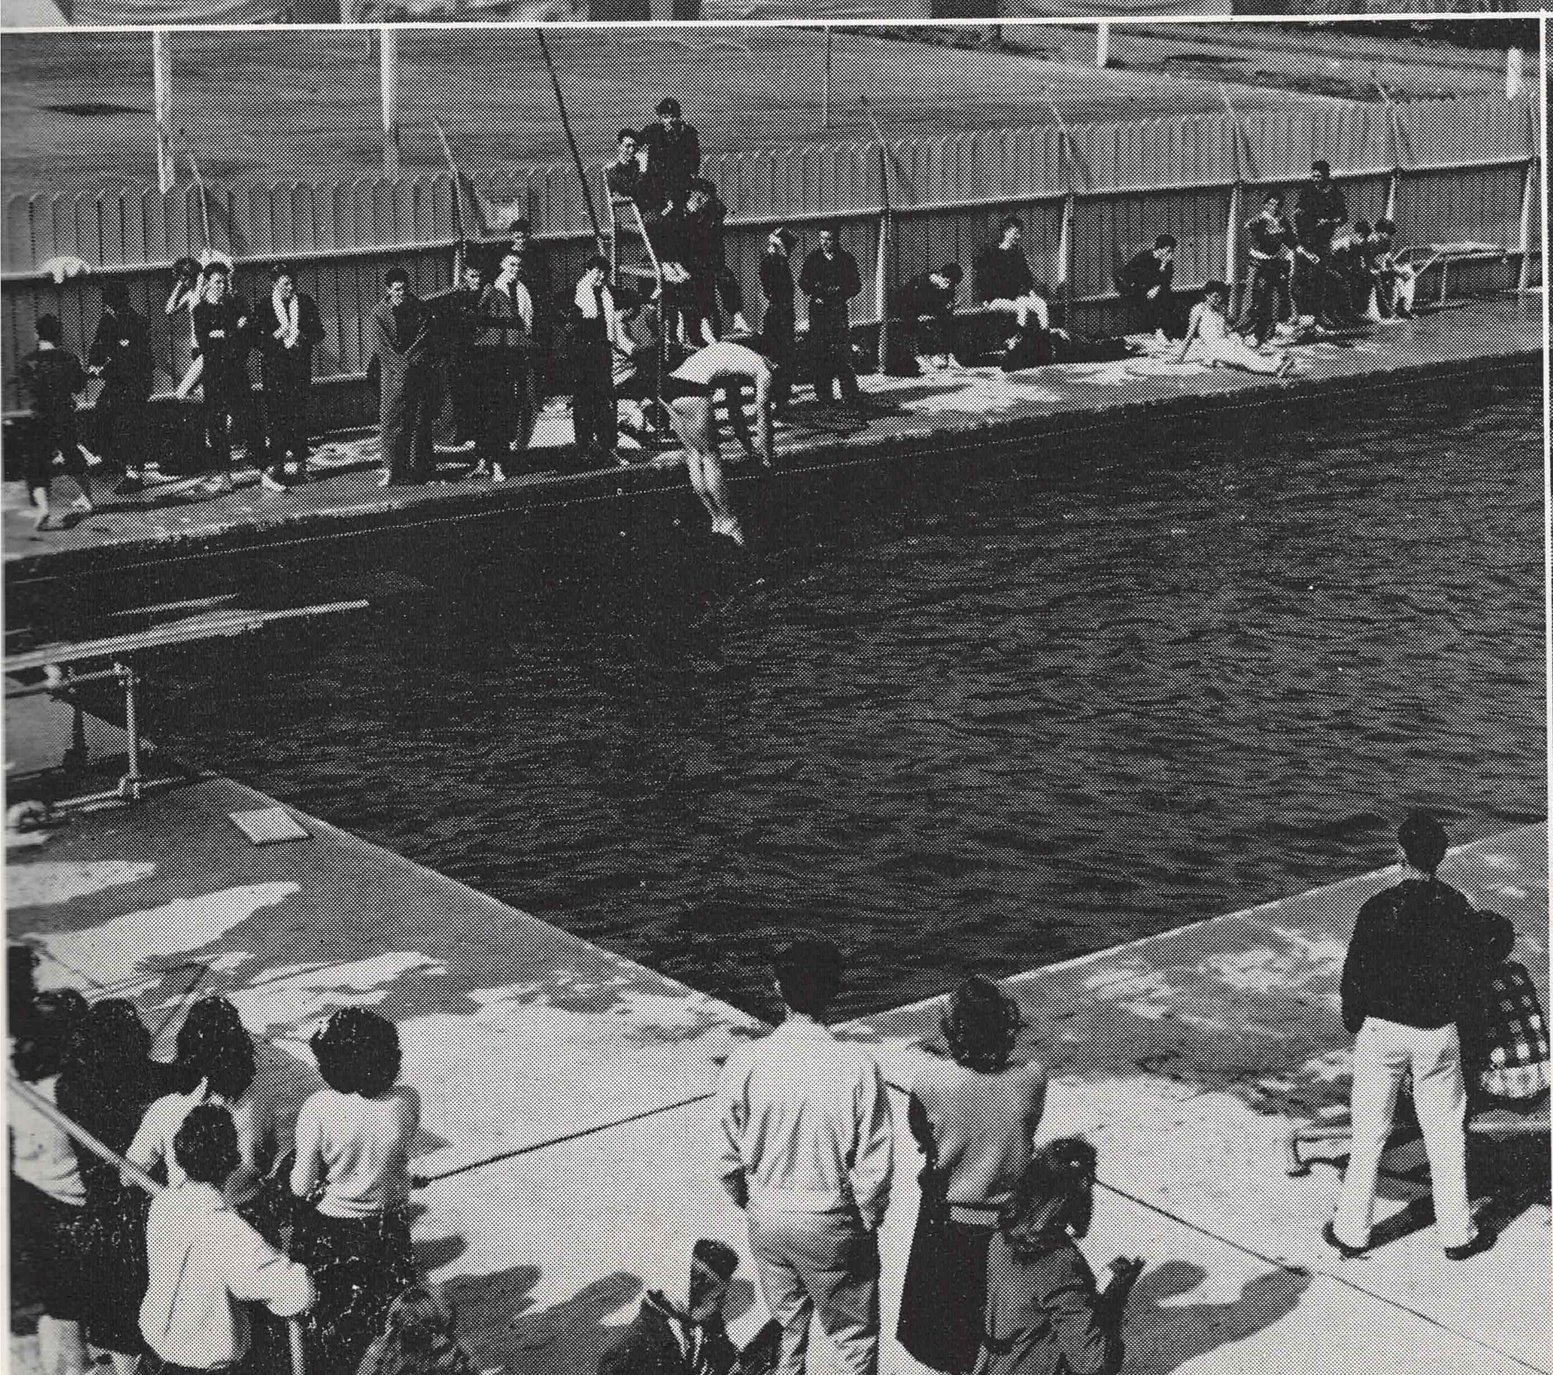

By shifting swimmers and positions in order to find a winning combination, a small but powerful "B" team finished the season in a blaze of glory by their unexpected victories over the other county teams for the championship.

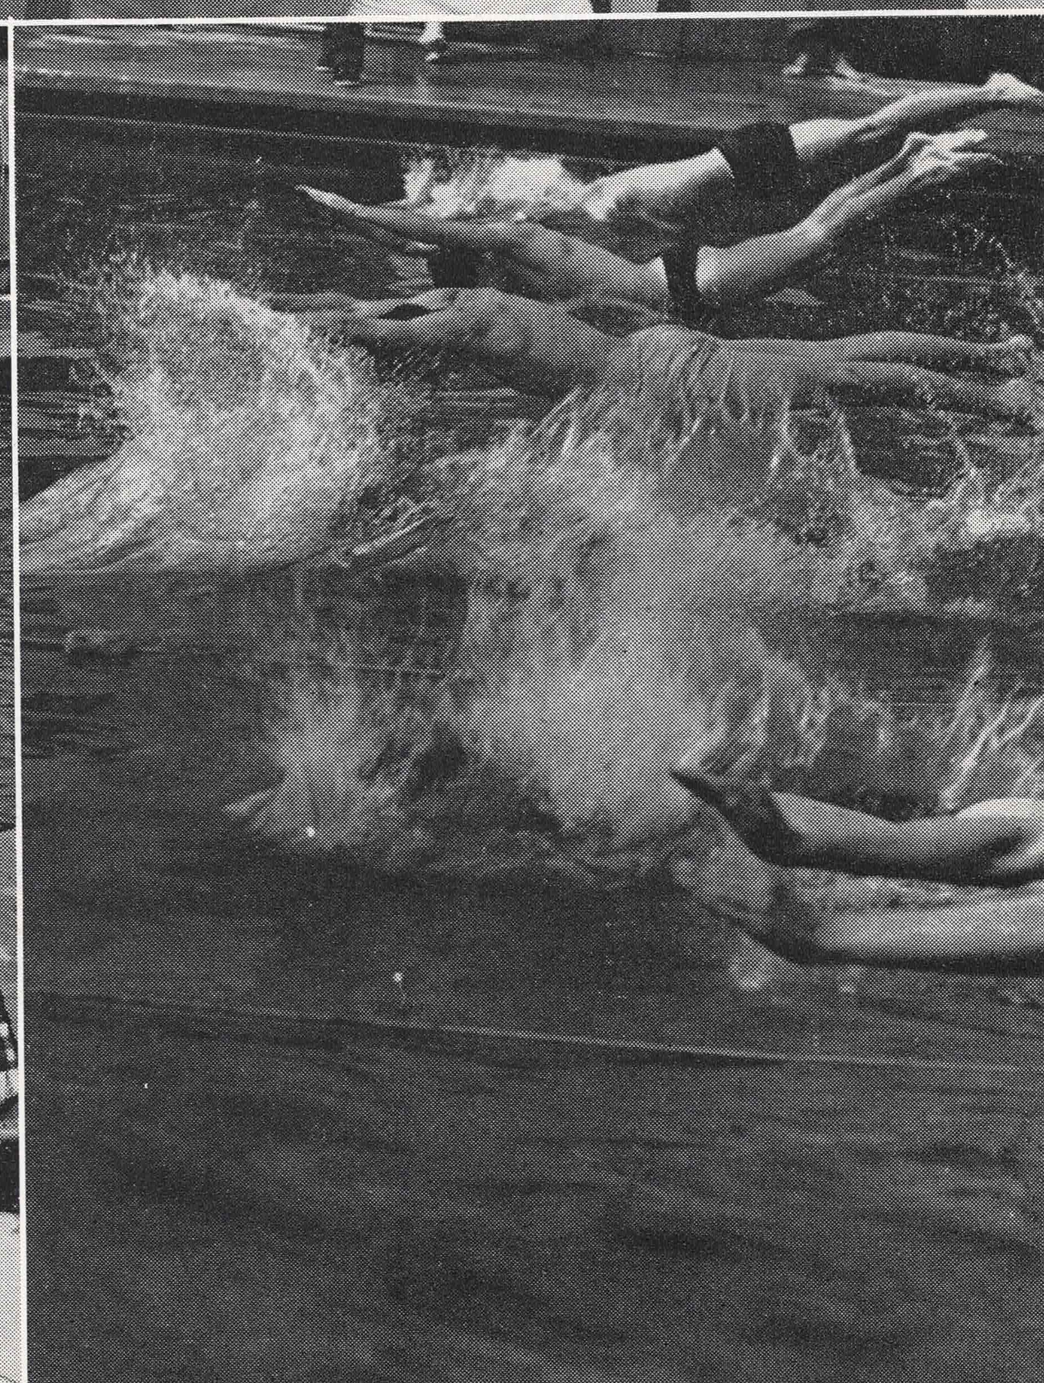

The mainstays of the team proved to be Drewry Reynolds, Jim Muldoon, Jim Sowers, and Jerry Blalock. The latter two established school records in their respective events.

G. A. A.

With the helpful guidance of faculty advisors, Miss Lopez and Miss Bettencourt, the G.A.A. Cabinet was exceptionally active in promoting improvements in its own organization, supporting student body activities and furthering friendly athletic relationship with other schools.

With the able assistance of Mrs. Webb and Miss Lopez, a complete revision of the constitution has been undertaken which will affect the election of officers, method of awards, and installation exercises.

Donnas were hostesses for the county badminton playday. A University of California exhibition playday and the county playday were attended also.
